

2012 Recital News!

The recital has officially been scheduled for Saturday, June 16, 2012. Mandatory dress rehearsal will take place on June 15. The festivities will take place at Norwin High School. Dress rehearsal will begin promptly at 6:00pm. Please plan on arriving early to warm up and stretch your legs. The recital will begin at 3:00pm sharp. Please be there by 2:15pm to warm up and get ready for the opening number in which the entire studio will perform.

Everyone is required to put down a $30 deposit on costumes for each class you are enrolled in. This is non-refundable. The deposit will go towards the cost of the costumes. Deposits must be made by December 15. Balances must be paid by February 15. You will not receive your costume until your balance is zero. Costumes will be ordered during our Christmas/New Years break. This is to ensure adequate time for delivery, and in case alterations are needed. Once costumes are ordered, they cannot be returned. Most costume companies make costumes per order and do not have them pre-fabricated in a warehouse. They WILL NOT accept returns. We are already beginning to select costumes, & pictures will soon be posted at the studio.

All students will also be learning the opening number for the recital. The costumes for the opening will be simple and inexpensive (usually between $15-$30) therefore, we do not require a deposit on this one. Each group will learn a short routine for different sections of the song, then finish off the routine with the whole studio dancing together.

No student will be permitted to dance in the recital unless the bottom portion of this sheet is signed by a parent/guardian. Please return as soon as possible!

Thank you!

-Miss Jen

*(Please detach & return, along with your deposit, by December 15.)
